7. Sergei Eisenstein: Drawings 1931–1948 (<https://www.galleriesnow.net/shows/sergei-eisenstein-drawings-1931-1948/>) at Alexander Gray Associates (<http://www.alexandergray.com/>)

As the director of Battleship Potemkin, Sergei Eisenstein is securely in the pantheon of all-time film greats, and the subject of any intro level film course. Get ready to have your mind blown, then, as Gray presents a very different, more intimate side of the man via this rare suite of Eisenstein's "sexual drawings," racy black-and-red cartoons, made during his sojourn from Russia in the US and Mexico, and informed equally by his own bisexuality and sources ranging from Mexican muralism to Walt Disney (<http://www.artnet.com/artists/walt-disney/>).
