

Westside Stories: July 2019

There's more than enough to explore on the Eastside, but you might consider crossing Lake Washington for these Seattle specialties.

By Lisa Patterson | July 3, 2019

OCTOPUS WRAP DEBUTS AT SAM'S OLYMPIC SCULPTURE PARK

Octopus Wrap is a new site-specific installation at the PAACAR Pavilion that will be on display through March 2020. It's the brainchild of Brazilian artist Regina Silveira, "renowned for her illusionistic interventions on buildings, city streets, and public parks." This park's location is at a busy intersection, and her art combines tire tracks that take on the form of octopus arms.