

São Paulo Art Weekend: Shows to See

Tessa Moldan | São Paulo | 1 November 2019

Exhibition view: Mimi Lauter, Après nous le déluge, Mendes Wood DM, São Paulo (24 August–10 November 2019). Courtesy Mendes Wood DM.

Organised by the non-profit organisation ABACT (Brazilian Association of Contemporary Art), Art Weekend São Paulo returns between 8 and 10 November for its fourth edition to showcase the best of art in Brazil and beyond.

Regina Silveira, Matar a Sede (2018). Glass on porcelain. 21 x 36 cm; 33 x 39 x 39 cm. Courtesy the artist and Luciana Brito.

Regina Silveira: Coisas

Luciana Brito Galeria, Avenida Nove de Julho 5162, Bela Vista

9 November–21 December 2019

Opening on the Saturday of São Paulo Art Weekend, this exhibition presents over 30 works in porcelain and glass created by master 'shadow artist', Regina Silveira. For Silveira, printmaking 'contaminates everything', and her graphic experimentations extend from her early videos, to later works in embroidery, plastic, wood, silkscreen, and more. In Coisas, which translates to 'Things', graphic forms and letters spill across transparent, reflective, and pure white surfaces, created between the 1990s and 2018 using domestic objects in glass and porcelain that the artist has appropriated.