5 “ARTISTS OF COLOR” (THE UNDERGROUND MUSEUM, LOS ANGELES; CURATED BY NOAH DAVIS) By founding the Underground Museum, the late artist Noah Davis left Los Angeles with a jewel box of ideas that continue to dazzle as they take shape. The most recent exhibition, “Artists of Color,” plays with the expectations set by its title, delivering a brisk jaunt through post-Minimalist experi-m-entations with hue, light, and form by a wide-ranging group of artists, including Carmen Herrera, Jennie C.
Jones, Diana Thater, and Felix Gonzalez-Torres.

On view through February 4, 2018.
