EXHIBITIONS FROM ADAA MEMBER GALLERIES ACROSS THE COUNTRY

ADAA Member Galleries continue to produce conceptually and visually powerful exhibitions. Visit the ADAA Gallery Guide to discover more in-person exhibitions, online presentations, and other art experiences. Below you will find an interview with one of our dealers, as well as a few examples of what is currently on view at our galleries! Please note that for in-person exhibitions, an appointment may be required.

ALEXANDER GRAY ASSOCIATES NEW YORK

“A Balancing Act,” at Alexander Gray Associates, is a two-venue exhibition of new works by Joan Semmel in New York City and Germantown, NY. In these recent paintings, Semmel mines psychology and vulnerability, bringing her technical prowess to bear in sophisticated figurative arrangements and rigorous color compositions
