Harper's Bazaar events calendar: the best things to do across the country

What are we up to and how much there is to experience in our country - from museums, performances to new store openings.

B EMMA VLOEIMANS 17/05/2022

Now that we can finally do something more than a walk through the park, we will of course grab this opportunity with both hands. We have selected the best activities, outings and performances of the moment so that you can go out with your friends, family or lover. Make memories that you will talk about for a long time to come, whether in your own country or just across the border.

Exhibition Ricardo Brey — GAP IN THE CLOUDS

He is called one of the most important artists of our time: the Cuban Ricardo Brey. The Gap in the Clouds exhibition is his first major solo exhibition after his participation in the 56th Venice Biennale. With this exhibition, the artist wants to make a positive statement and give a sign of hope in these troubled times. Expect a lot of blue, the color in which during a period of loneliness due to the pandemic he associated with freedom, vastness, space, inspiration and sensitivity.

The performance opens May 19 at the Hof van Busleyden Museum in Mechelen, Belgium
